DMCMA Membership

DMCMA is a collective group of dedicated managers devoted to improving the administration of justice in Courts of Limited Jurisdiction throughout the State of Washington. The organization was established in 1970 and currently has over 175 members. We welcome all persons holding a leadership position in a Court of Limited Jurisdiction to join this group of court professionals. Membership benefits include:

- Eligibility to apply for a $500 scholarship for education (one every three years) – form online
- Discount registration opportunities
- Opportunity to network with DMCMA members at training sessions
- Use and view list serve
- Opportunity to hold the following positions:
 - DMCMA Board Member
 - Committee Chair
 - Liaison to a government agency

For additional membership information, contact our membership chair, Mickey Zitkovich at Mickey.Zitkovich@DMCMA.org or visit our web site at www.DMCMA.org

Our Commitment to Education

The Association develops and promotes quality education by developing conferences and training throughout the state.

We are committed to educating the future leaders of our courts by hosting regional trainings in the Spring and the Fall. Some of our more recent topics include Leadership, Customer Service, Public Disclosure, Data Dissemination, Sexual Assault Training, Bankruptcy, Ethics for Court Employees, Implicit Bias, Privilege and Legislative and DOL updates.
